

How fun to spend time with friends

Almost all people have friends. Someone has a lot of them, and someone a little, but, in any case, people like to spend time with his friends and soulmate. Probably for this reason, it is the people and spend some of their time, despite the fact that it is during: holidays, weekends, vacations or just ordinary days. Friends almost completely rely on each other, understand, support and care.

This is probably also love, though not like in relationships, friendships love. Well, why not? A true friend will never abandon a person in need.

Friendship should be valued. Some people do not understand until then, until you lose the friendship. But friend, like a brother (or sister), it should be protected. Friends may be many, but each special in their own way: with his fellowship, his care and attention. Exactly the same not to find, therefore it is necessary to take care of each other.

5 ideas how to spend time with friends

To be in the company of essays for me friends very interesting and enjoyable, but it can be boring when nothing to do. Especially unpleasant situation when friends are going on holiday, but don't even know what to do (except drinking and eating). It is necessary that at least someone knew any ways to have fun yourself and amuse the company. Here, for example:

1. Play cards on the desire. You can play just like that, but desire will be much more fun. The main thing to establish in advance the approximate edge of desire, and then then can go to the differences: one loses the desire, but is refusing to fulfill it. In such cases you can also come up with a wish before the game starts.

2. Play Board games. It is also quite an interesting way of entertainment and is suitable for a large number of people.

3. To be photographed all together or in succession, but not necessarily that it was usual. It can be especially funny and ridiculous to be photographed, and you can laugh, and in the future it will be interesting to remember.

4. "Crocodile" – this is quite an interesting game and just in time for friends because of its factors: fun, interesting, able to play any number of people, as well as training of intelligence and memory. If there are no special cards, you can make your own. Best option: everyone is dealt a certain number of pieces of paper and write any words, then to play them, so no one will know all the words.

Five. Someone or a few people can to organize competitions for the rest. You can make these contests were pretty fun, then have fun and presenters, and participants of fun. At the end you can make small prizes.

The thing to remember is that the game should choose so that she liked and was fun for all, not just some people. Also, do not forget that this is just a game, the play is not scary. Many people for the sake of winning and doing everything, forgetting about my friends, but succumb not worth it, so it will be not interesting to the person, and also his friends.
